

PENINSULA COLLEGE WORKER RETRAINING APPLICATION 2017-2018

If you have experienced a major change in your employment or circumstances in the last 24-48 months, you may be eligible for financial assistance through the Worker Retraining Program. You must be enrolled in a Professional-Technical Education Program and meet all other qualifications (see other side).

Tuition, fees, and books, and supplies will be awarded through Worker Retraining only for those classes required for your professional-technical program. Child or dependent care and transportation assistance are also available. You must also apply for other sources of financial aid by filing the 2017-2018 FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) application.

Complete and submit this form and any documentation to the Worker Retraining Office at Peninsula College using the following information:
