Faculty-Led International Nursing Courses

Spring and Summer 2015

Earn 5 college credits of Special Topics in Global Health. Most suitable for students currently enrolled or interested in studying Health Sciences.

Guatemala:

- Spring Break (1 week duration)
- Language and Cultural Emersion and community health service learning.

-Estimated Cost: $1,500 for one week

Ireland:

- Summer Break (2 week duration)
- A study of Irish culture, history and comparative health care systems; prevention, community-based government-funded health care programs and education.

- Estimated Cost: $2,750 for two weeks

Cost for programs is approximate and will be based on number of students enrolled. Cost will include housing, tuition, some meals, scheduled site visits, and cultural excursions. COST DOES NOT INCLUDE AIRFARE.

Questions? Please contact International Student and Faculty Services at international@pencol.edu or (360) 417-6491.