

PENINSULA COLLEGE'S
STUDIUM GENERALE
WINTER 2026

SPEAKER SERIES

PENINSULA COLLEGE'S PORT ANGELES CAMPUS
LITTLE THEATER & ZOOM • THURSDAYS @ 12:35 PM
THIS EVENT IS FREE & OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

01-08-26
ESTHER WEBSTER: PAINTINGS, PRINTS & SKETCHES

A presentation by David Brownell, Executive Director of the North Olympic History Center, about providing context through historic preservation.

02-12-26
SALMON, CEDAR,
ROCK & RAIN

Maria Parker Pascua, Tim McNulty, and Loni Greninger will lead a reading and discussion from a collection of essays and photographs that highlight place-based knowledge and celebrate Indigenous presence.

01-15-26
DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. LEGACY LECTURE

Faculty member Migizi Miigwan will lead a discussion on Dr. King's legacy, the "Loving v. Virginia" decision, and the experiences of multi-racial families here on the Peninsula.

02-19-26
SARA DEREN: CERAMIC ARTIST-IN-RESIDENCE

Sara Deren will share her journey with clay, the inspirations and influences behind her current series of work, and what the future of her work holds.

01-22-26
MARINE RESOURCES COMMITTEE OF CLALLAM COUNTY

The Marine Resources Committee (MRC) will deliver a presentation that emphasizes marine science, ecosystem restoration, and community support.

02-26-26
THE PLIGHT OF A WOMAN

Helen Masviken, a Zimbabwean-born artist, cultural strategist, and storyteller presents a dynamic blend of narrative mediums which examine the forces that shape identity, expectation, voice, and liberation.

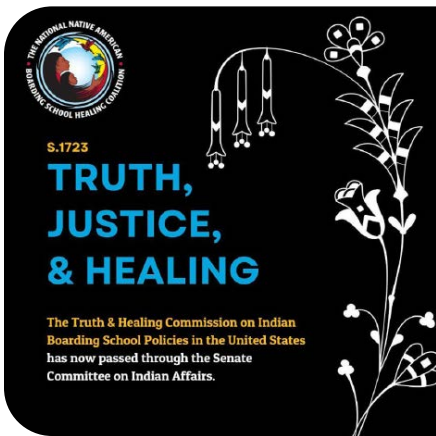

01-29-26
AWARENESS OF HUMAN TRAFFICKING & PREVENTION

Sergeant Marlies Dick of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP) will present on prevention of human trafficking.

03-05-26
WHAT WE TALK ABOUT
WHEN WE TALK ABOUT EMPATHY

Peninsula College faculty member Janet Lucas, PhD, will reflect on her sabbatical research that centered on empathy and its important roles in teaching and learning.

02-05-26
THE IMPACT OF INDIAN BOARDING & RESIDENTIAL SCHOOLS

Andrew Pascua, a member of the Kwikwetlem First Nation, will discuss his role in education, community-building, and healing.

Stodium Generale takes place each Thursday, from 12:35–1:25 pm, in the Little Theater of Peninsula College's Port Angeles Campus. You can also join on Zoom; Meeting ID: 828 8756 7433.

For more information about Studium Generale, please contact Kate Reavey at kreavey@pencol.edu.

These programs are made possible through generous contributions from the Peninsula College Foundation.

PENINSULA COLLEGE

@peninsulacollege

@peninsulacollege

@pencollege

pencol.edu/events