

PENINSULA COLLEGE'S STUDIUM
GENERALE
SPRING 2026

SPEAKER SERIES

PENINSULA COLLEGE'S PORT ANGELES CAMPUS
LITTLE THEATER & ZOOM • THURSDAYS @ 12:35 PM
THIS EVENT IS FREE & OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

04•02•26
INDIGENOUS POETRY, MEMORY & CULTURAL PERSISTENCE

Celebrate National Poetry Month with Nellie Bridge, Poet Laureate of Clallam County, and two poets from Chile, Maribel Mora-Curriao and Rodrigo Rojas.

05•07•26
EDUCATION, INDIAN
CHILD WELFARE & LEADERSHIP

Sharleen Yellowwolf-Fryberg, a member of the Colville Confederated Tribes and a descendant of Chief Joseph of the Nez Perce will discuss education, Indian Child Welfare, and leadership.

04•09•26
FOR THE LOVE OF DARKNESS & BIRDS

Patty Giffin from Lights Out, Washington! will explore how artificial light at night endangers migratory birds and will provide steps for communities to counteract light pollution.

05•14•26
WRITER-IN-RESIDENCE:
JAMES McGRATH
MORRIS

James McGrath Morris, a biographer and writer of narrative non-fiction, will read from his newest book, Tony Hillerman: A Life.

04•16•26
AI: THE COLLEGE CAREER CONNECTION

Alysia LaTourette will lead a panel discussion on how colleges can help prepare students to be successful in pursuing their chosen fields.

05•21•26
MEMORY THREAD
WITH HOLLI MARGELL

Peninsula College Alumna Holli Margell '02, an Eastern Shawnee Tribe of Oklahoma citizen, will present her photography exhibit Memory Thread, which explores her ancestors' removal from the Ohio territory to Oklahoma.

04•23•26
POETRY READING
WITH ROBERT
MICHAEL PYLE &
JAMES DOTT

Celebrating Robert Michael Pyle's Swimming with Snakes and James Dott's Touch Wood

05•28•26
THE VALUE OF VOLUNTEERING

Transitional Studies faculty member Cheyenne Tuller will discuss what volunteering has taught her about herself, her community, and the value in giving back.

04•30•26
FROM MICE TO MOUNTAIN LIONS

Kim Sager-Fradkin, Wildlife Program Manager for the Lower Elwha Klallam Tribe, will explore the response of wildlife to the removal of the Elwha River dams.

06•11•26
GREAT DECISIONS
WITH DR. LYNN ILON &
ROGER WAGNER

Great Decisions is a community-based learning program established by the Foreign Policy Association. Topics discussed will focus on the EPA and the structure of US taxation.

PENINSULA COLLEGE

Questions? Contact Kate Reavey at kreavey@pencol.edu
Join Us On Zoom! Meeting ID: 824 2331 6508

These programs are made possible through generous contributions from the Peninsula College Foundation.