The objects lent may be photographed by Peninsula College for record, educational, catalog, and publicity purposes. It is understood that objects on exhibit may be photographed by the general public.

On request of Lender, objects will be insured by Peninsula College under the Fine Arts Commercial Insurance policy, according to its provisions and exclusions, for the duration of the incoming loan agreement. Insurance coverage will be for the amount specified by the Lender herein, which must reflect fair market value at the time of the loan. If the Lender elects to maintain his own insurance coverage, Peninsula College must be supplied with a certificate of insurance naming Peninsula College as an additional insured. Peninsula College shall not be responsible for any error or deficiency in information furnished to the Lender's insurer or for any lapse in coverage. The Lender is responsible for updating insurance valuations. The amount payable by an insurance policy is the sole recovery available to the Lender in event of loss or damage.

By signing the Agreement the Lender certifies that they are the legal owner of the described property. It is incumbent upon the Lender to notify Peninsula College in writing of any change of address. In case of change in legal ownership during the period of the loan, the new owner is required to establish his legal right by proof satisfactory to Peninsula College.

Artwork must be picked up on date listed above. If after one year the property is not withdrawn, it may be deemed to become the unrestricted property of the State of Washington for administration by Peninsula College.
